MARKET SHOWED

Commission Houses Are Not Doing Enough Business to Pay Expenses.

Pay Expenses.

NEW YORK, February 27.—Conditions in the stock market showed no improvement to-day, and it was the general comment that the day of small things has arrived. An air of gloom pervaded stock commission houses in the financial district, the current volume of business being wholly inadequate to provide ordinary office expenses. Dealings not only continued at a low stage, but the lethargy of the price movement was more promounced, detracting from the ability of the room-traders to scalp their fractional profit in the course of the day. The sales for the day were still slightly in excess of the record low level of one day last year, but with that exception the dany business at the Stock Exchange is less than has been done on any one day in over three years. There was an impression in the stock that chances were increasing for the enactment of a currency measure at Washington, and this was of some effect in sustaining stocks. Railroad earnings reported showed no marked change in the unfavorable conditions for some time prevailing. This was a special influence on New York Central, which was the heavy spot in the market.

The slight movements in the stock and the stock that chances were increasing or the unfavorable conditions. market.
The slight movements in the stock market were not held with any constancy.

Bonds were irregular. Total tales, par value, were $2,820,000. United States 4's registered advanced 1-4 per cent, on cell. Total sales to-day were 269,800

COTTON MARKETS.

NEW YORK, February 27.—The cotton market was less active to-day and somewhat reactionary, the close being barely steady at a net decline of 316 points. Sales were estimated at 225,009 bales. The market opened steady at unchanged prices to an advance of 2 points on the cables, and during the early session sold up to a net gain of about 629 points on active months as a result of over-night buying orders, continued covering and local support. There was some further demand for the near meants from spot people, but yesterday's buyers wis disappointed that there was no aggressive buil support following yesterday's developments. After showing a net loss of allowid 246 points the market became very quiet, and while there was a slight raily during the middle of the afternoon it falled to hold, with closing prices at practically the lowest of the day on active months. To markets were the continued light with the continued and that notices are successful to the day of t was stution. The arrest of the boy was stoutly resisted by his side partner, Giacomo Damenico, who fought the officers desperately, and was finally locked up. The services of an intarpreter were necessary to make out the names of the Italians, the older boy protesting in voluble English that he did not understand the questions of the officers. The boys were members of a gang of laborers brought here recently to work on a sewer contract.

each number with a history of its origin and its composer. Mr. Kirk Mathews played the organ with great brilliancy, using the difficult stops, ospecially the vox humans, so strikingly that one almost believed it a human voice instead of an organ. The last solo on his program, "Rondo Allegro," by Dubois, was played with terrific speed, showing not only the fine technique of the performer, but the possibilities of the instrument. Miss Greenwood and Mrs. Julien Gunn sang most effectively both in the quartet and solos, while not a little of the success of the performance was due to Mr. Manly B. Rames, who played the accompaniments.

Mrs. Garland Pollard was the leading spirit in getting up the entertainment, and was much congratulated upon its success.
